Participation (code of conduct):

1. Learners are expected to attend all training sessions and carry out all programme related activities. Should a learner not complete parts of their online training or not attend Telegram meetings within a 3-week period, MMA and partners have the right to expel that learner from the programme.
2. Learners are responsible for upholding their own behavior and that of their peers while online carrying out Web Ranger related activities, and are therefore expected to report misconduct, or any suspicion thereof, of any kind immediately to their direct superior. Should a learner be found to be involved in any misconduct, MMA and partners have the right to expel that learner from the programme.

MMA and partners reserve the right to respond as it deems appropriate to action which breaches the Code of Conduct. Possible responses include immediate expulsion from Web Rangers Programme and being reported to your school/third party institution.

The Campaign competition:

1. As part of the Web Rangers programme, all learners are expected to take part in the campaign competition. The campaign video must relate to the three themes:
 - Fighting Disinformation
 - Children use the internet to make SA a better place
 - Creating a safer online space for all
2. Should a learner drop out of the programme or be expelled by MMA and partners, they forfeit their right to participate in the competition and any prize awarded.
3. The competition due date will be announced.
4. The campaign video must not be derogatory, offensive, threatening, defamatory, or contain any content that is inappropriate, sexual, profane, discriminatory in any way, or that promotes hatred or harm against any group or person, or otherwise does not comply with the themes outlined above, as well as the values of the programme.
